BIOGRAPHY

Ryan Lambrecht is an experienced litigation technology specialist and has run trial support for more than 60 jury trials, bench trials, and arbitrations. He helps WTO's attorneys and clients communicate complex concepts to lay jurors and judges in clear, understandable terms and images. From timelines and graphic design to video editing and animations, Ryan's courtroom presentation knowledge helps attorneys convey the key concepts and evidence to support their cases.

Ryan is extremely comfortable with industry-leading software, such as Trial Director, OnCue, Trial Pad, and other applications. He is also fluent in the entire Adobe Creative Suite and other graphic design, video, and presentation software.

CASES

- Slavin v. Garrison Prop. & Cas. Ins. (D. Colo. 2018) - Won a defense verdict for USAA/Garrison in a bad faith jury trial in which the plaintiff claimed USAA must pay for a special run of bricks in order to fully repair the plaintiff's home. A 12-member jury unanimously rejected the plaintiff's claims, agreeing that USAA had acted in good faith.
- IBM Corp. v. City of Golden, et al. (Denver Cnty. Ct. 2018) - Won a trial verdict for IBM as plaintiff in a $6.1 million tax dispute against the City of Golden involving sales and use taxes assessed over a seven-year span.
- Won an arbitration involving a $50 million claim brought by a joint venture partner against WTO's oil and gas company client.
