

ABIGAIL S. WALLACH

Associate

wallach@wtotrial.com | P 303.244.1987 | F 303.244.1879

BIOGRAPHY

Abbey Wallach represents sophisticated clients in civil litigation, employment litigation, and appeals. As an appellate court clerk and legal intern, Abbey has gained high-quality experience analyzing briefs and researching issues across a range of litigation matters.

While in law school, Abbey interned in the Office of the General Counsel at Xcel Energy, where she worked on a variety of litigation matters. She also interned at the University of Colorado Office of Institutional Equity and Compliance, where she investigated violations of federal and state employment laws. In addition, Abbey served as a Constitutional Law research assistant, competed at a national moot court competition, and won the Women's Law Caucus Award and the Austin W. Scott Top Orator Award for the Rothgerber Moot Court Competition.

EDUCATION

University of Colorado Law School, J.D., 2015

The College of New Jersey, B.A., 2012, magna cum laude, History, Spanish minor, Phi Beta Kappa, NCAA Cross Country and Track & Field

GOVERNMENT SERVICE

Law Clerk to The Honorable Gale Miller, Colorado Court of Appeals

OTHER EXPERIENCE

Xcel Energy, Office of the General Counsel, Legal Intern
Legal Intern to The Honorable Christine M. Arguello, U.S. District Court for the District of Colorado

ADMISSIONS

Colorado

PRACTICE AREAS

- Commercial Litigation
- Environmental Litigation
- Investigations & Compliance
- Employment
- Appellate

CASES

- Won affirmance preserving WTO's trial court dismissal of a wrongful termination lawsuit involving the public policy exception to employment at will.

COMMUNITY MEMBERSHIPS, ACTIVITIES & HONORS

Rose Andom Center
Board of Directors
Young Professionals Council, Executive Board

ARTICLES & PRESENTATIONS

- "The Rose Andom Center Changes the Legal Landscape for Domestic Violence Victims," Colorado Lawyer (May 2017)

PERSONAL INTERESTS

Running, hiking, volunteering, and speaking Spanish