HIGHLIGHTS

- Won a case-ending motion to dismiss for one of the largest healthcare providers in central Iowa. Agreeing with our client’s arguments, the Iowa district court dismissed plaintiffs’ complaint with prejudice.
- Won a jury defense verdict for an ER doctor in Minnesota.
- Won a jury defense verdict in a case where the plaintiffs claimed a family medicine physician failed to diagnose and treat hypertensive emergency, failed to hospitalize the 39-year-old male patient, and failed to prevent hemorrhagic stroke the next day. Plaintiffs’ counsel requested a verdict in excess of $40 million. The jury returned a verdict for the defense in 1 hour and 20 minutes.
- Won a jury defense verdict in a case where the plaintiff alleged a pain specialist was negligent for the over-prescription of opioid medications leading to addiction over the course of 23 years. The defendant was located in Hong Kong during the trial due to Covid. He attended the trial and testified via video.
- Won a jury defense verdict in a case where the plaintiff alleged that the anesthesia team was negligent for failure to evaluate limited neck extension and for negligent intubation during low back surgery, resulting in massive C5-C6 disc herniation and paralysis from the neck down.
- Won a jury defense verdict for an obstetrician in a case where the plaintiff claimed negligent application of excessive downward traction during shoulder dystocia delivery, resulting in permanent brachial plexus palsy.
- Won a jury defense verdict for a family medicine physician in a wrongful death of infant case. The plaintiff claimed the medical team failed to diagnose diabetic ketoacidosis of mother, resulting in the death of 27-week-old infant.

BIOGRAPHY

Cecilie Loidolt has taken over 60 cases to jury defending her clients in high-exposure medical malpractice lawsuits. She has significant experience representing medical providers in eight-figure birth injury cases and often serves as national counsel. Minnesota Super Lawyers featured Cecilie with the article, “The Gunslinger, The Bulldog or The Pit Bull: Call her what you want—Cecilie Loidolt just wins.” She also has been named Lawyer of the Year by Minnesota Lawyer.

Cecilie has won high-profile trials, including a first-of-its-kind opioid addiction case for a pain specialist. Her recent victories also include winning a defense verdict for a doctor in a $40 million stroke case and a defense verdict for an anesthesia team in a paralysis case involving spinal surgery.

When Cecilie meets clients for the first time, she stresses her two main client service approaches. She defends her clients the way she would want to be defended if she were in their shoes. And she tells them, “You take care of patients, and I take care of you.”

The military is important to Cecilie and her family. Her husband, Neal, served in the military for over 34 years and was deployed twice to Iraq. During deployments, Cecilie continued to try cases. Their son, Sam, also serves his country and was deployed to Romania. Their family mantra is “we will make it work.” Cecilie received the 2019 Superior Volunteer Service Award, the highest National Guard award to a civilian.
