

KAI THOMPSON

Associate

KThompson@wtotrial.com | P 303.244.1849

Kai Thompson previously was a summer law clerk at WTO. He has experience with regulatory cases, appellate matters, and brief writing.

EDUCATION

University of Chicago Law School, J.D., 2025; Comments Editor, The Chicago Journal of International Law; Mentoring and Outreach Chair, OutLaw; Vice President, Food and Drug Law Society

University of San Francisco, B.A., 2016, Business Administration with a concentration in Accounting, magna cum laude

GOVERNMENT SERVICE

International Human Rights Intern at the Huascarán National Park of the Peru Ministry of the Environment

Management Analyst for the Office of Research and Development at the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency

Community Economic Development Volunteer at the Peace Corps

ADMISSIONS

Colorado

KAI THOMPSON

BIOGRAPHY

Kai Thompson previously was a summer law clerk at WTO. He has experience with regulatory cases, appellate matters, and brief writing.

An avid environmentalist, he was an intern at The University of Chicago Law School's Abrams Environmental Law Clinic.

Kai also was a community economic development volunteer for the Peace Corps. While working in a rural village in Peru, he learned how to actively listen and communicate effectively with people from diverse backgrounds.

BAR & COURT ADMISSIONS

Colorado

PERSONAL INTERESTS

Snowboarding, mountaineering, and spending time with family