BIOGRAPHY

Kori Miller helps clients develop and implement litigation and trial strategies in complex civil disputes in federal and state courts nationwide. Kori has participated on four trial teams—serving as second chair in three of those—with outstanding results for her clients.

Kori's experience includes defending individuals and companies in contract and warranty disputes and a broad range of tort matters, including products liability, premises liability, wrongful death, general negligence, and intentional tort cases. Representative clients include commercial motor vehicle companies, chemical manufacturers, medical facilities, commercial construction companies, retailers, and insurers. Kori has also defended governmental entities in individual and class action lawsuits involving general tort and state and federal constitutional claims.

Kori graduated with honors from the University of Georgia School of Law, where she was a member of the moot court and mock trial teams.
