BIOGRAPHY

Melissa Romero focuses on complex commercial litigation for sophisticated clients across various practice areas. She represents businesses in a wide range of disputes and industries, including franchise, software, aerospace, telecommunications, oil & gas, consumer products and services, and energy sectors. She has substantial experience developing and implementing national litigation, trial, and settlement strategies, favorably and efficiently resolving pre-litigation disputes, taking and defending depositions, managing complex discovery and motions practice, and handling hearings and trials in court and arbitration proceedings.

Before joining WTO, Melissa worked as a law clerk to The Honorable Christine M. Arguello of the U.S. District Court for the District of Colorado and The Honorable Terry Fox of the Colorado Court of Appeals.

Melissa graduated from the University of Denver Sturm College of Law where she received a full-tuition Chancellor's Scholarship and served as the Executive Board Articles Editor of the Denver University Law Review. She also received numerous honors and awards during law school, including the Reese Persuasive Writing Award, the Hartje Objective Writing Award, and several Scholastic Excellence Awards, which are given to the top law student in each class.

CASES

Commercial, Franchise, and Employment

- Substantially prevailed at trial for a national franchisor in a more than $50 million case brought by franchisees alleging numerous express and implied breaches of the franchise agreements and seeking related declaratory judgments.
- Following a multiday evidentiary hearing, secured injunctive relief for a franchisor against businesses that were unlawfully competing against it using franchisor's trade secrets, including client information, and infringing on franchisor's trademarks.
- Won a complete victory following a four-day arbitration for the nation's leading beauty and wellness franchisor, which was accused of fraud, franchise disclosure violations, violations of unfair competition laws, and breach of contract. WTO also successfully countersued for breach of contract and trade secret misappropriation, obtained preliminary and permanent injunctions, recovered liquidated damages, and secured an award of attorneys' fees and costs.
- Won a directed verdict on a Colorado Wage Claim Act claim and secured voluntary dismissal of defamation and punitive damages claims for a large regional bank the night before closing arguments in a five-day trial after four-plus years of litigation.

- Won complete summary judgment of all seven claims brought against WTO's commercial client in an employment matter involving unsupported allegations of wrongful termination, retaliation, and age discrimination.
- Won a preliminary injunction for a national fitness franchisor against three competing fitness and nutrition studios that had stolen our client's trade secrets, infringed on its trademarks, committed fraud, and breached non-compete obligations.
- Serves as counsel in numerous high-stakes commercial and franchise proceedings involving allegations of wrongful termination, franchise disclosure violations, breach of supplier requirements, fraud, breach of contract, trademark infringement, trade secret misappropriation, and more.
- Won multiple injunctions in various states in arbitration, state court, and federal court for business clients in multiple industries and involving a wide range of commercial issues, including theft of trade secrets, trademark infringement, non-compete violations, unfair competition, fraud, and breach of contract.
- Obtained a favorable settlement for real estate professional in breach of contract and fraudulent misrepresentation action involving over $50 million in claimed damages.
- Successfully defended a national telecommunications company in high-stakes dispute involving unsupported allegations of trade secret theft and unjust enrichment, including by bringing counterclaims for fraud, breach of contract, civil conspiracy, and tortious interference with contract.

Professional Malpractice and Product Liability

- Won partial summary judgment and dismissal of product liability claims brought against a national automobile manufacturer based on unsupported allegations of a design defect in the vehicle's occupant restraint system.
- Obtained a favorable defense settlement in a medical malpractice case following the first few days of a jury trial. Handled numerous aspects of trial including witness preparation, motions in limine, depositions, and jury instructions.
- Drafted pleadings, dispositive motions, and mediation statements for a professional malpractice case that resulted in a favorable settlement for WTO's clients.
- Represented international appliance manufacturer in a product liability class action that settled favorably.

Pro Bono

- Won permanent protection order for survivor of stalking, harassment, and domestic abuse and her minor child, following disputed evidentiary hearing.

- Won complete administrative closure of removal proceedings, allowing WTO's asylum client and her minor son to remain in the United States with work authorization, indefinitely.
- Won preliminary injunction for WTO's client under the Hague Convention on the Civil Aspects of Child Abduction, preventing WTO's client's former partner from removing his children from the State of Colorado during the pendency of the Hague matter.
- Settled a breach of contract case brought by a national bank against WTO's client on favorable terms, reducing the client's payment to under 12% of the plaintiff's original demand.
