ADMISSIONS

Colorado

Nick Steverson represents clients in professional liability defense, catastrophic tort cases, and complex commercial litigation. Nick specializes in complex motions practice. He has briefed issues in both federal and state courts, including amicus briefing before the U.S. Supreme Court. Additionally, Nick's courtroom experience includes examining witnesses at trial, arguing pre-trial motions and critical motions during trial, and negotiating jury instructions with opposing counsel and the court. He assists sophisticated clients in the legal services and healthcare industries.

HIGHLIGHTS

- Argued and won a directed verdict to dispose of a $40 million punitive damages claim in an admitted liability case where we represented a hospital. WTO successfully positioned the damages case for a verdict that was less than a tenth of the plaintiff's opening demand to the jury.
- Successfully excluded testimony by experts who improperly sought to bolster plaintiff's prior statements, in trial where we represented a hospital facing 8-figure exposure.
- Represented a civil rights organization in certiorari and merits-stage briefing before the U.S. Supreme Court in a Fourth Amendment case with national implications.
- Successfully excluded expert testimony in trial where we represented a hospital in a case involving a physician accused of sexual abuse.
- Representing an acute children's hospital in consolidated case from 40 plaintiffs involving criminal conduct allegations against a physician.
- Conducted investigation into patient suicide and achieved favorable pre-litigation settlement of high-exposure claims.
- Conducted investigation into claims of patient abuse at a facility closed for fifteen years prior to plaintiff's claims, resulting in favorable pre-suit settlement.
