BIOGRAPHY

Mike Williams specializes in complex commercial disputes that often involve novel legal issues. A versatile attorney, Mike has won national recognition for his defense of companies in high-stakes class actions while also helping clients recover large damages awards and injunctive relief in some of their most important matters. Mike is ranked in Chambers USA and has been named a BTI Consulting Client Service All-Star.

Mike is known for delivering compelling trial arguments that clear a path to exceptional courtroom results. At the same time, he identifies meaningful common interests to help bring parties together amid stark differences.

Mike consistently finds a way to resolve his clients' significant legal and business concerns through effective litigation and pre-suit counseling. His experience includes the defense of class actions and the pursuit of damages arising from breach of contract, intentional torts, and denials of insurance coverage.

National outlets have recognized Mike for his defense of consumer class actions. As co-counsel, he tried a certified class action trial for Whirlpool to a defense jury verdict in Ohio federal court. Mike has successfully defended more than 100 class actions at the pretrial stages for a range of companies. Such cases have involved allegations of product defect, false advertising, unfair consumer practices, and environmental torts.

Mike's experience also includes national coordination of pattern and mass tort litigation and related regulatory investigations. He has represented international manufacturers, retailers, investment companies, small businesses, and individuals in more than 25 states across the country.

Mike is listed in Chambers USA, Best Lawyers, The Legal 500 US, Benchmark Litigation, and Colorado Super Lawyers. The Legal 500 US quotes clients and peers who describe Mike as "exceptional," "always available," "a great trial strategist," and possessing "the rare ability to communicate with business leaders in a meaningful way."
