BIOGRAPHY

Geraldo Parrilla represents sophisticated clients in complex litigation nationwide. Prior to joining WTO, he served judicial clerkships in the U.S. District Court for the District of Connecticut and in the Connecticut Appellate Court.

Geraldo previously served a fellowship with the American Civil Liberties Union, worked as a law clerk, and served various legal internships. Through these involvements, he gained valuable experience drafting dispositive motions, preparing for depositions, and conducting research across a range of personal injury and civil rights cases.

CASES

- Won U.S. asylum in a pro bono victory for two Congolese refugees who were targets of extreme ethnic violence in their home country.
